Clovis celebrates Future 50 Win Third Year in a Row!

January 21, 2008, Bethesda, MD – SmartCEO magazine has chosen Clovis to be among the Future 50 winners for the third consecutive year. This special recognition is for companies that have grown significantly in both employee headcount and company revenues throughout the last three years. The winners are comprised of pioneering organizations that are between three and ten years old.

“As a young company, being recognized among the Future 50 winners three years in a row is a huge success,” said co-founder and managing partner, Rick Levine. “We will continually work to improve our processes and align our practices with the market’s current needs.”

Washington SmartCEO stated that “the Future 50 program celebrates business growth and recognizes companies and owners who are keeping the Greater Washington business climate vibrant and exciting.” With such an exciting mark for the new year, Clovis is looking forward to even more growth in 2008.

Clovis wishes to congratulate all of this year’s Future 50 winners. The entire list may be viewed at the Washington SmartCEO website.

About Clovis

Founded in early 2000, Clovis (www.clovisgroup.com) looked at the way recruiters and staffing firms operated and declared that they would do it better. Instead of making their business only about how to best recruit, they decided to focus on the two most important groups in the process, clients and candidates. Years later, Clovis continues to recruit "A-level" talent for some of the best companies in the world.
