Clovis receives 4 consecutive years of recognition on the fastest growing companies list

Bethesda, MD, August 19, 2009 – Inc. magazine announced its 28th annual Inc. 500|5000 ranking of the fastest-growing private companies in the country and Clovis was listed as #37 in human resources.

This is Clovis' fourth consecutive year of being listed on the Inc. 500|5000 list. With an impressive three-year growth rate of 275.5%.

The Washington, D.C., metropolitan area boasts 42 Inc. 500|5000 companies, making it the top metro area for the seventh consecutive year (up three from last year). New York City and Los Angeles are close seconds with 36 each (up five and 10 from last year, respectively), followed by Chicago with 23 (down four from last year) and San Francisco with 20.

“To be among the few that have received this recognition for four consecutive years is truly an accomplishment and especially difficult in the face of this challenging economy. Our continued growth is a testament to our abilities to provide innovative hiring solutions within Accounting and Finance, Information Technology and Workforce Management,” stated Rich Mazelsky, President and COO. “Clovis does not try to be everything to everyone and we provide solutions around the core areas that keep businesses operating efficiently. Our clients choose to rely on us during these tough times because we provide diverse engagement options and flexible pricing. We look forward to continued growth and success and congratulate all of the other companies recognized by Inc.500|5000 organization.”

Inc. 500|5000 Methodology

The 2009 Inc. 500/5000 list measures revenue growth from 2005 through 2008. To qualify, companies must be U.S.-based and privately held, independent – not subsidiaries or divisions of other companies – as of December 31, 2008, and have had at least $200,000 in revenue in 2005, and $2 million in 2008.
